

Disclosure Statement
Ethnolinguistic Favoritism in African Politics
by Andrew Dickens
16 October 2017

Financial support for this research comes from the Social Science and Humanities Research Council of Canada (file number 752-2014-2195). This is an arm's length federal research-funding agency without any vested interest in my research. I have not received financial support from any other interested party, and I do not hold a paid or unpaid position at a relevant non-profit or profit-making organization. No other party has had the right to review this paper prior to this submission.