

To the American Economic Association,

I have no conflicts of interest to declare for the submitted paper “Organizing Time Exchanges: Lessons from Matching Markets”. While working on this paper I have been an employee at Lund University and Stockholm School of Economics. Parts of the research is funded by “The Jan Wallander and Tom Hedelius Stiftelse” (P2018-100) and “Ragnar Söderbergs Stiftelse” (E8/13). The research undertaken in this paper is fully independent from the above-mentioned organizations, which do not have any stake in the results of the paper. I have nothing to disclose in terms of memberships in relevant organizations. No party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of a large, stylized 'T' followed by a series of loops and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Tommy Andersson, March 20, 2020