

Disclosure Statement for Turner

Manuscript: Subways and Urban Air Pollution

By: Nicolas Gendron-Carrier, Marco Gonzalez-Navarro, Stefano Polloni, and Matthew Turner

Berkeley, California, November 13 2020

-Relevant relations for Matthew Turner:

- The author declares he has no relevant material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper.
- The author is the vice-president of the Urban Economics Association. This position is unpaid. The author declares not to have any other paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of any profit-making or non-profit entity.
- None of the author's close relatives have any relevant paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of any profit-making or non-profit entity whose policy positions, goals or financial interests relate to this research.
- The author is affiliated with the following organizations other than Brown University: Research Associate, National Bureau of Economic Research, Cambridge MA; Research Affiliate, International Growth Center, London; Senior Research Fellow, Property and Environment Research Center, Bozeman MT; Kennen Fellow, Princeton University Department of Economics;

-Prior review:

- The authors were free to write the paper without any external party reviewing the paper prior to circulation.

-Financial support:

- Matthew Turner received financial support for this project from the International Growth Center grant #89337.

-IRB approval:

- No IRB approval was requested for this research because it does not involve human subjects data.

Matthew Turner
Professor of Economics
Brown University