

Paper title: Gender Differences in Economics Seminars

Authors' disclosures

Other coauthors on this manuscript include 103 members of the Seminar Dynamics Collective, 46 of this have chosen to remain anonymous. As this was mandatory for the paper to be submitted as an NBER Working Paper, we have confirmed that none of the 103 coauthors have relevant or material financial interests that related to the research. For practical reason, we are not providing individual signatures for each of them.
