Disclosure Statement

For the paper Detection of Collusive Networks in E-Procurement, submitted to AEJ: Applied Economics

I hereby declare that I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper. I have received financial support for this article from Princeton University (for research assistance), the Weiss Fund (award number PRN-004; for data purchases), and the Czech Science Foundation – GACR (as a PI of project number 21-15480M “The Role of Institutional Factors and Information in Public Procurement Markets”; for financial support for travel to present). We also were offered favorable rates for data purchased from YouControl, though the data did not make it into the final analysis and YouControl has not reviewed the paper (nor has it requested the right to do so.)

We did not collect any new data for this project and hence did not attempt to obtain IRB approval.
