

Disclosure Statement - Enrico Berkes

I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in the paper “Income Segregation and the Rise of the Knowledge Economy”.

During the period in which this research was performed, I was the recipient of the Kauffman Dissertation Fellowship awarded by the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation.

The fellowship also granted me access to the National Establishment Time Series dataset that is used in Section 4 and Appendix B.2 of the paper. This dataset is proprietary and the underlying data that are used in those specific instances cannot be publicly released.